HALLOWEEN FUN FACTS

By Chris Bean

- X 🕸 Halloween is also called All Hallows Eve.
- X 🕸 Jack-o-lanterns originated as hallowed out turnips to keep evil spirits away.
- X 🕸 Legends say that if you see a spider on Halloween, it's a loved one watching over you.
- X 🕸 At the turn of the century, cities were becoming too crowded so people started playing practical jokes to let off steam, hinting the saying trick or treat.
- X 🕸 According to folklore, witches are known to ride brooms. Warlocks, the male equivalent, ride pitchforks.
- X 🕸 The sales of Halloween candy account for 2 billion dollars a year.
- X 🕸 The color orange represents the upcoming fall harvest, and black represent the darkness of winter coming.
- X 🕸 In Ireland, to protect their children from spirits, parents would place a mixture of oatmeal and salt on the children's heads.
- X 🕸 Anna Goddi was the last person executed accused of being a witch.
- X 🕸 There is no word in the English dictionary that rhymes with orange.
